

The Tiger

(Reserved)
for Joyce Taylor

-Warren-

What shall I say? Well, in the first place, I think the world of you, and even though you get awfully mad sometimes, you are about the nicest boy I know. Of course I get mad at you sometimes too, so I guess we're even.

I've had a lot of fun with you this year, Warren. Working on the Tigers' Tale, when you'd get so disgusted with me - Remember the evening you came home with Melba and me and ate supper? I sure did enjoy that, and I want you to feel free to come see me any time.

Warren, it took me a long time to get to know you, but I think I do know you now, and you're one of my favorite persons. When you first came here I thought you were hateful & conceited. But really, you're not — just sure of yourself! No — you're a wonderful person and I hope you think half as much of me as I do you, because in my book you are just about the I.T.

In two weeks we'll be gone, but I'll never forget you —
Your friend,
Joyce

WARREN RIDGWAY

(Reserved)

FOR SHIRLEY MILLS
+ DAVID COLLEY

Warren -

About a year ago when you moved here and came to American History class and sat down by me I thought I'd never get to know you. But, here we are two close friends. You had a great adjustment to make and you did it beautifully. You are indeed more fun to be with and I enjoyed every minute of this year with you. I know once or twice you thought I didn't like you but things worked out all right. I really should hate you for rigging that party and especially my partner. I know you thought the party wasn't so good, but everybody always likes your parties (even if the ice does stink). I hope we can keep up our contacts after you leave here. Good luck to a nice boy.

Always,
David

- Warren -

Well the end of the year is almost here but we've had a lot of great times. Remember the Senior trip. All that went on going down and back. They did say some things that they shouldn't about it but I had a great time anyway. I hope when you leave here that you add as much where ever you are as you have while you've been here.

Best of wishes what ever you do.

Your friend,
Butch
Holder

Warren, are a real nice guy and I have enjoyed living in Spanish I with you.
It has been a pleasure
and experience knowing
you. I wish you all the luck and happiness that this world can give. Always,
J. L. J. Weatherford

Warren
You are a very nice intelligent boy
lots of luck in life
a you should go
a long way from life

Warren -
I guess you must hate me for forgetting all my devotionals but I have a scatterbrain I guess. I have enjoyed you very much this year. This old world needs more people in it like you. I want to wish you all the success possible.
Always,
Diane

Warren -
Best wishes & good luck. I think you will be very happy in
a friend
Diane

Warren -
Up until this year, I did not know you very well but now I have found a friend ship that will last - I will always remember the night after the Junior - Senior Banquet and you know the rest of the story - fun - wasn't it. Best wishes always Garry "44"

Warren -
It has been wonderful knowing
and going to school with you. I like to tease you but I really like
you. Here's wishing to best of luck &
happiness
to a very deserving
person.
Always,
Nancy
(Jonesy)

Warren

I hardly know where to begin. It has been just great going to school with you these past 2 years. You are more fun to be around than just about anyone I know. I'll never forget last year in P.E. when we had to sit in the hall. and all the other crazy things we did. Those were the great days.

THE TIGER

This year we have also had lot of fun. & especially after the Jr. Sr. Prom.
and then again on the Senior Trip. I'll always be sorry about that mean old man getting all your money.
Well I'm sure making a man out of you annual so I think I will quit while I'm still ahead.

Best of everything in life to a real cute and sweet boy.

Love ya,
Janette

Warren.
Right at first it didn't work did it?
Well now that we are friends
I would like to tell you that I enjoy every minute of it.
Wish you luck,
Pal Roy M.

Warren
I think you've done something.

To Warren Ridgway

I have known you for one + 1/2 years; in this time I have come to like and respect you. You have a personality different from anyone's which I have known. You are popular, intelligent and deserving. You will acquire everything you want in life.

We have had many good times together. Among these are the many discussions we have had; the fun which we had working with your radio; and the telephone calls (which were always interrupted). We went to the lounge one night and had a bad night. Jimmy L. and Joe W. had a little better luck. On the Spanish trip we heard my favorite friends get all the way to Dallas. In Chemistry we have had many extra problems assigned to us for talking, and we have "worked" hard in the lab. We stuck together on the evening store (except when we were drawing them at each other). In the National Phys. Society, we did much to better our school, or rather, we some times. By the way, I'm sorry that I gave so many devotionals. On the "Jig & Jigs", we had some fun also. Remember, all the fun we had in making our pinata. Did you ever collect your money from Mary? You have bought many "fine" records this year + I am sure all that you have done + times with the pinatas, or playing them. We have ridden with Jack Jordan over the entire country, and he was lucky to have us. The party you gave was great + I really am sorry about the mess that followed. Anyway, one reason I like you more than most people is your intelligence in more than one field + that is why you are a great person. I hope to know you for my life.

A true friend,

I just can't begin to say ^{the} things that I do really feel. But I do a lot of you, and you don't know how much better I would feel after I talked to you about my troubles. I will really miss you when you leave, but I hope you will always consider me as your friend. And remember you are always welcome in my home. I wish you the best of everything. Because I think you really deserve. May your life always be a happy one. Love you,
Layne
